Call Now for Your FREE Living Trust Consultation!

Several weeks ago, we sent you a letter which included a $350 gift certificate toward setting up a living trust, and we offered you a free, one-hour, private consultation—at no obligation to you—to discuss how a living trust would work in your personal family situation.

We asked that you come in and meet with us before August 15, 2008. You haven't responded yet and due to an overwhelming response, we are going to extend this incredible savings for a limited time.

As you know, a living trust will protect your estate from conservatorship if you become incapacitated while you're living, and will protect your estate from the expense and delay of probate when you're gone. If you own a home or have assets worth over $300,000, we strongly recommend that you call now to set up your free consultation.

Pick Up The Phone Now!
Call (336) 547-9999 for Your Free Consultation
(Say you have a "$350 gift certificate to set up a living trust")

Make sure you call us today to make your appointment for a free consultation because your gift certificate is valid only if you meet with us before August 15, 2008.
